HIGH COURT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH, SIMLA

NOTIFICATION

Simla, the 13th November, 1979

No. HHC. Admn. 18-4/74.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 304 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Act No. 2 of 1974), the High Court of Himachal Pradesh with the previous approval of the Government of Himachal Pradesh, hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

PART I

1. Short title und commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Legal Aid to Accused at State Expense Rules, 1979.

- (2) They shall come into force from the date of their publication in the Himachal Pradesh Rajpatra.
- 2. Definitions.—(a) "Advocate" means a person enrolled under the Advocate Act, 1961 and entitled as of right to practise in the Courts Subordinate to the High Court.
- (b) "Court" means a Court of Session whether presided over by a Sessions Judge, Additional Sessions Judge, Assistant Sessions Judge.
- (c) "Code" means the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973.

PART II

3. Authority to decide means of accused to engage counsel.—(i) When in a case instituted on a Police report or otherwise, the accused is committed to the Court of Session for trial under section 209 of the Code, the Magistrate on such enquiry as he may deem fitshall simultaneously make a report to the Sessions Judge whether the accused was represented by a counsel in the proceedings before him and whether the accused has sufficient means to engage a counsel for his defence.

(ii) If on the report of the Magistrate or otherwise, the court is satisfied that the accused has not sufficient means to engage an advocate for his defence, the Court shall assign an advocate for his defence at the expense of the State:

Provided that when an accused person is charged with the commission of an offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life and he is unrepresented, the Court shall assign an advocate for his defence at the State expense irrespective of the fact whether the accused has sufficient means to engage a counsel.

PART III

- 4. Panel of Advocates for legal aid and the mode of selection.—(i) The Sessions Judge, after consultation with the Additional Sessions Judge, if any, and the President of the District Bar Association shall prepare and maintain a panel of 10 to 15 suitable Advocates willing to appear for the undefended accused at State expense in the trials before the Court of Session.
- (ii) The person to be included in the panel shall have at least a standing of 5 years as a practising Advocate and in case of retired Judicial Officers who have commenced practice, an experience of at least 5 years in the trial of criminal cases as a Judge or a Magistrate.
- (iii) The appointment of the Advocate shall be madefrom the panel so constituted, but in exceptional circumstances it may be made from outside the panel.
- (iv) The panel shall ordinarily be revised at the end of every two years.
- (v) A person to be included in the panel shall be on being informed of the proposed inclusion indicate his willingness to serve on the panel to the Sessions Judge.
- (vi) A person in the panel may intimate in writing to the Sessions Judge to remove his name from the panel. He shall, however, be eligible for being included again in the panel.
- (vii) Where in a Sessions trial there are more than one accused, one Advocate, ordinarily will be assigned for them unless they put forward antagonistic defence, or there are special reasons to be recorded in writing for engaging more than one counsel for the defence of the accused.
- (viii) The Advocate appointed as a defence counsel may retire during the trial if and when the accused engages a lawyer of his own choice:
- Provided that if there are more than one accused and all of them have not engaged an Advocate of their own choice such Advocate shall continue to represent the accused who has not engaged his own counsel.
- (ix) If an Advocate whose name has been included in the panel and who after accepting the assignment neglects or refuses to discharge his duty without reasonable cause, the Sessions Judge may remove his name from the panel and appoint another Advocate in his place.

PART IV

5. Facilities to be extended to the Advocates from the Panel.—The appointment of an Advocate as defence counsel shall not be deferred until the accused his been called upon to plead. He shall always be appointed well in advance to enable him to study the case, contact the accused and take necessary instructions, if necessary.

He shall be furnished free of costs copies of depositions if any, and those of necessary documents which the Court deems fit before the commencement of or during the trial. He shall be allowed inspection of the record of the case without charging any fee.

PART V

- 6. Scale of fees.—(1) The ordinary fee payable to an Advocate, engaged for defence of the accused charged with the commission of offence punishable with death or imprisonment for life shall be Rs. 60/- per day and in other cases Rs. 50/- per day, subject to maximum of Rs. 600/- for the case, as the Sessions Judge may decide in each case tried by him or on the basis of the recommendations of the Additional Sessions Judge trying the case.
- (2) In special cases the Sessions Judge may sanction more amount of fees than the maximum of Rs. 600/-provided above, after recording reasons for the same but subject to prior approval of the High Court.
- (3) No fee shall be payable on a day on which the case is adjourned without any proceedings being taken by the Court, except on the first hearing of the case when the accused appears or is brought before the Court in pursuance of the commitment of the case under Section 209 of the Code.
- 7. An Advocate engaged at State expense shall, at the conclusion of each day of hearing in the case, prepare and submit for counter-signatures by the Presiding Officer of the Court a diary containing following details fully set out:—

Date	The name and title of the case and name of the accused defended	Duration of hearing

- (2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall require the authority to dis-close facts which it considers to be against the public interest to disclose.
- 9. Constitution of Advisory Boards.—(1) The Central Government and each State Government shall, whenever necessary, constitute one or more Advisory Boards for the purposes of this Ordinance.
- (2) The constitution of every such Board shall be in accordance with the recommendations of the Chief Justice of the appropriate High Court.
- (3) Every such Board shall consist of a Chairman and not less than two other members, and the Chairman shall be a serving Judge of the appropriate High Court and the other members shall be serving or retired Judges of any High Court.
 - Explanation.—In this section "appropriate High Court" means—
 (a) in the case of the detention of a person in pursuance of an order of detention made by the Central Government or an officer of the Central Government or the administrator of the Union territory of Delhi or an officer subordinate to such administrator, the High Court for the Union territory of Delhi; (b) in the case of the detention of a person in pursuance of an
 - order of detention made by any State Government (other than the administrator of a Union territory) or an officer of such State Government, the High Court for that State; and
 - (c) in the case of the detention of a person in pursuance of an order of detention made by the Administrator of a Union territory (other than the Union territory of Delhi) or an officer subordinate to such administrator, such High Court as the Central Government may, by order published in the Official Gazette, specify with respect to such Union territory. such Union territory.
- 10. Reference to Advisory Boards.—Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Ordinance, in every case where a detention order has been made under this Ordinance, the appropriate Government shall, within three weeks from the date of detention of a person under the order, place before the Advisory Board constituted by it under section 9, the grounds on which the order has been made and the representation if any made by the person affected by the order, and in sentation, if any, made by the person affected by the order, and in case where the order has been made by an officer referred to in subsection (2) of section 3, also the report by such officer under sub-section (3) of that section.
- 11. Procedure of Advisory Boards.—(1) The Advisory Boardshall, after considering the materials placed before it and, after calling for such further information as it may deem necessary from the appropriate Government or from any person called for the purpose through the appropriate Government or from the person concerned, and if, in any particular case, it considers it essentials to to do or if the person concerned desires to be heard, after hearing him in person, submit its report to the appropriate Government within seven weeks from the date of detention of the person concerned.

- (2) The report of the Advisory Board shall specify in a separate part thereof the opinion of the Advisory Board as to whether or not there is sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned.
- (3) When there is a difference of opinion among the members forming the Advisory Board, the opinion of the majority of such members shall be deemed to be the opinion of the Board.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall entitle any person against whom a detention order has been made to appear by any legal practitioner in any matter connected with the reference to the Advisory Board, and the proceedings of the Advisory Board, and its report, excepting that part of the report in which the opinion of the Advisory Board is specified, shall be confidential.
- 12. Action upon the report of Advisory Board.—(1) In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is in its opinion sufficient cause for the detention of a person, the appropriate Government may confirm the detention order and continue the detention of the person concerned for such period as it thinks fit.
- (2) In any case where the Advisory Board has reported that there is in its opinion no sufficient cause for the detention of the person concerned, the appropriate Government shall revoke the detention order and cause the person to be released forthwith.
- 13. Maximum period of detention.—The maximum period for which any person may be detained in pursuance of any detention order which has been confirmed under section 12, shall be six months from the date of detention:

Provided that nothing contained in this section shall affect the power of the appropriate Government to revoke or modify the detention order at any earlier time.

- 14. Revocation of detention orders.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of section 21 of the General Clauses Act, 1897 (10 of 1897), a detention order may, at any time, be revoked or modified-
 - (a) notwithstanding that the order has been made by an officer of a State Government, by that State Government or by the Central Government;
 - (b) notwithstanding that the order has been made by an officer of the Central Government or by a State Government, by the Central Government.
- (2) The revocation or expiry of a detention order shall not bar the making of a fresh detention order under section 3 against the same person in any case where fresh facts have arisen after the date of revocation or expiry on which the Central Government or a State Government or an officer, as the case may be, is satisfied that such an order should be made.
- 15. Temporary release of persons detained.—(1) The appropriate Government may, at any time, direct that any person detained in pursuance of a detention order may be released for any specified period either without conditions or upon such conditions specified in the direction as that person accepts, and may, at any cancel his release.
- (2) In directing the release of any person under sub-section (1), the appropriate Government may require him to enter into a bond with or without sureties for the due observance of the conditions specified in the direction.
- (3) Any person released under sub-section (1) shall surrender himself at the time and place, and to the authority, specified in the order directing his release or cancelling his release, as the case may
- (4) If any person fails without sufficient cause to surrender himself in the manner specified in sub-section (3), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to two years, or with fine, or with both.
- (5) If any person released under sub-section (1) fails to fulfil any of the conditions imposed upon him under the said sub-section or in the bond entered into by him, the bond shall be declared to be forfeited and any person bound thereby shall beliable to pay the penalty
- 16. Protection of action taken in good faith.—No suit or other legal proceeding shall lie against the Central Government or a State Government, and no suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person, for anything in good faith done or intended to be done in pulsuance of this Ordinance.
